

My Son is raising up a victorious army, for there is a Mighty Warrior able to call those chosen before the foundation of the earth.

I am so mighty, do not belittle Me or My Saviour, you cannot imagine what there is to behold in My glorious arrival. Cast off doubt of My ability, there is nothing I cannot do, only your impossibility to perceive My greatness is stopping you from receiving My full power.

I am not ashamed of what I am, nor you be ashamed of Me, for I am 'The Overcomer'.

Cast doubt to the wind, put on the full armour of God, do not disbelieve, but be of good cheer, for I am the lowly one, here to serve, here to give you such abundant good grace. Grace is the key; when you are unable, ask for it in your daily walk, both in your spiritual life and on earth.

I am the Giver and will endow all good things to you, but only when you are able to receive them. Do not be afraid then to ask for grace to be able, in everything I have given you to do and you will prosper, you will be victorious, you will have power to overcome.

There are those of you who are not prepared to listen, who would rather lean unto your own understanding and who therefore will not be able to partake unless repentance is found in your heart, eyes are opened, minds renewed by the Spirit of Holiness and stubborn and rebellious ways are sacrificed for the sake of My glory and coming Kingdom.

In this country;

there will be a flood of increasing depravity, sexual immorality, violence, sorcery and witchcraft to the extent that no-one will be able to determine right from wrong, good from evil.

Successive governments will fail in their attempts to contain gross rebellion against establishments of society. Foundations will be rocked in the money markets. Once where there was stability there will be insecurity of great measure; no-one will be able to remain.

The church will not be able to cope, but will fail to accomplish the purposes it was set down to do. The infighting, the factions, the warring amongst members do not prevail against iniquity of such gross magnitude.

Therefore I say to you 'Prepare yourselves for a great work, I have chosen you to be a light, a shining fortress for humanity. There is so much in-fighting and yet I say "Rest, for there is room for all and more. Add to yourselves by going out, I have My chosen for you, do not be afraid, for again, I am with you."'

There will be a flood of increasing depravity in the form of ungodliness that has never been seen before, including homosexual behaviour openly displayed by men, women and the young in particular. Violent young men, robbing and looting openly, sorcery with a vile increase in the use of all sorts of drugs, and witchcraft forming the alternative religion because of the 'supernatural' acts the Evil One can perform through his servants.

Nobody will be able to contain the anti-Christlike behaviour towards moral concepts of governance, stability and the foundational institutions of governments, which have maintained law and order throughout the ages and are God's way of doing so; without them, where would society be?

The church, because of its unholy nature will stand as another institution to be thwarted. Religious men will disclaim their inheritance and fall fast, only the faithful will remain. Even in the church where there is any light whatsoever, it will initially be dim. 'A kingdom divided against it-self cannot stand' and the disarray portrayed by the above onslaught will prove too much for the established church, who will run into hiding.

There is no unity, common purpose or plan to prevail against the common enemy. Titles, beliefs and power are too much the over-riding factor in men's lives to prevail over such dark times ahead.

Prepare yourselves then by seeking, by baring all to the throne of grace, not holding back anything which is of self, sin or shameful. Listen to the voice of God as though you are a chosen people for a great work.

Do not walk in self- humiliation but bow down low before Me, the Lord God, Who will lift you up to do a great work, a collective work, every member ordained by Me to fulfil My purposes, My plans. I am not in the business of man's ordination, plans or purposes. Do not see from your own will, way or magnitude. I will fulfil all My plans and if you do not choose to follow this route then devastation will come close. 'Seek ye first the Kingdom of God and His righteousness'.

Deny yourselves the right to be first, for the first shall be last and the last, first.

Honour the women among you for they are My chosen vessels, give credence to them and their outlook on life, for I adorn Myself with them and their inner beauty and they are not to be denied places of honour.

Power is the key to living lives in humility, forgiveness and grace. Seek it, find it and enjoy. Be free in worship, prayer, and rid yourselves of the encumbrances of religion, they are not for Me or Mine.

Remember, I am a God of mercy when mercy is sought, a God of grace when grace is sought, of humility when humility is sought.

Humble yourselves and pray so that there is no in-fighting, so that under estimation of My power is forgotten among you. My greatness, riches and compassion will follow.

Finally, go out in twos, threes, to gather up those I have hand picked for glory and grace.

Worship with all your heart and you will find great rewards. Do not stay in the same place any longer in this.

I understand your compassion for the lost, but for My kingdom to please Me in the company of His angels, there must be rejoicing of great magnitude, therefore weep and pray before My throne of grace, abandon pride and go forth to enjoy the reaping of souls. I will be with you in this work I have ordained for you.
